

Mersey Park Primary School

Rights of the Child

The right that we are looking at in June is:

Every child must be free to say what they think and to seek and receive all kinds of information, as long as it is within the law. (Article 13)

